

When I Open My Eyes

By Marvin

When I open my eyes,
What do I see?
I see a face,
Looking back at me.

I hear, "Good morning."
"Are you happy today?"
I smile right back,
And I start to say:

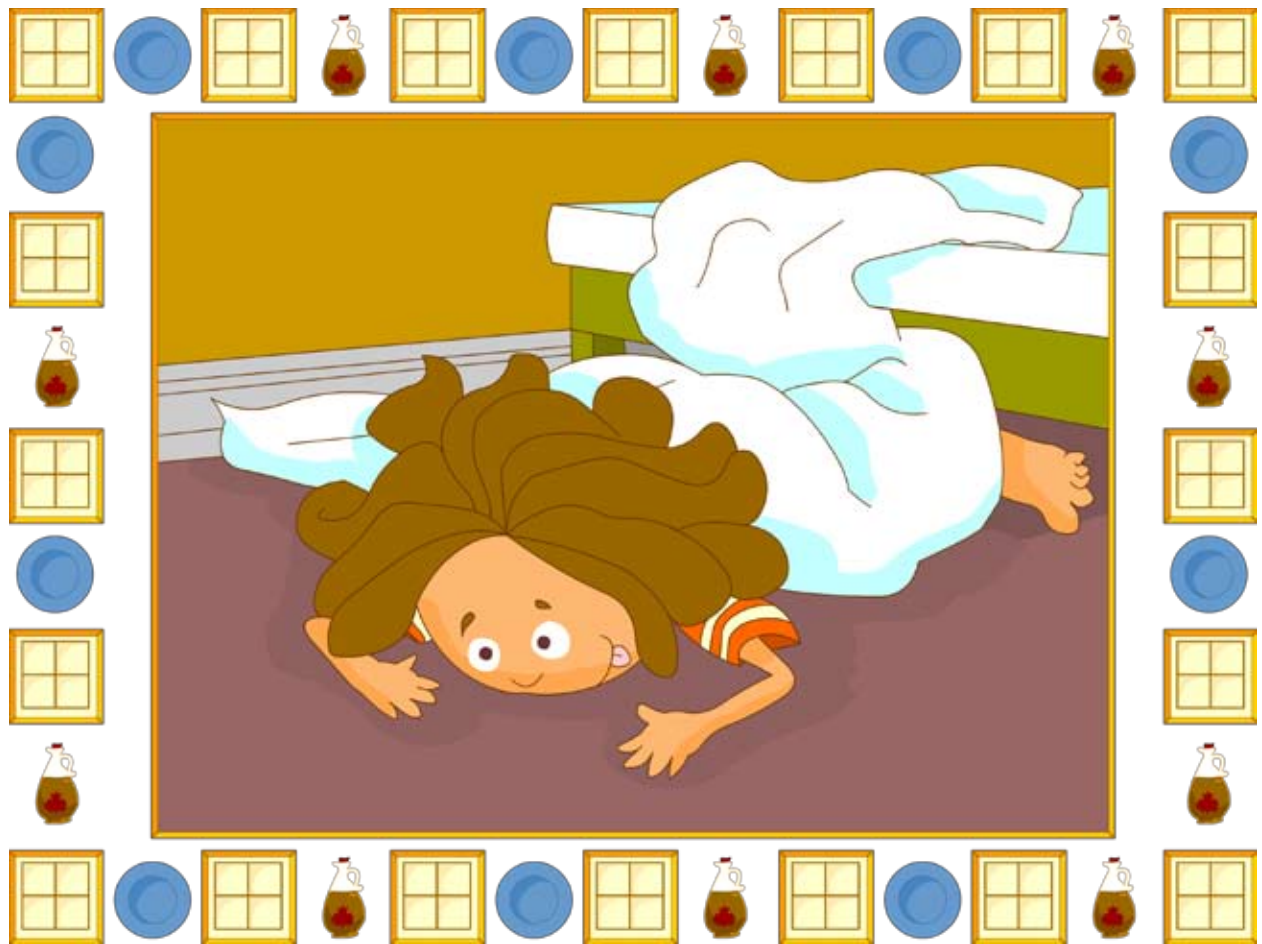

When I Open My Eyes

"Good morning to you,"
Then my nose starts to twitch.
I reach for my head,
Where I have an itch.

When I Open My Eyes

"What is that smell
Out in the hall?"
I move too fast,
And I take a fall.

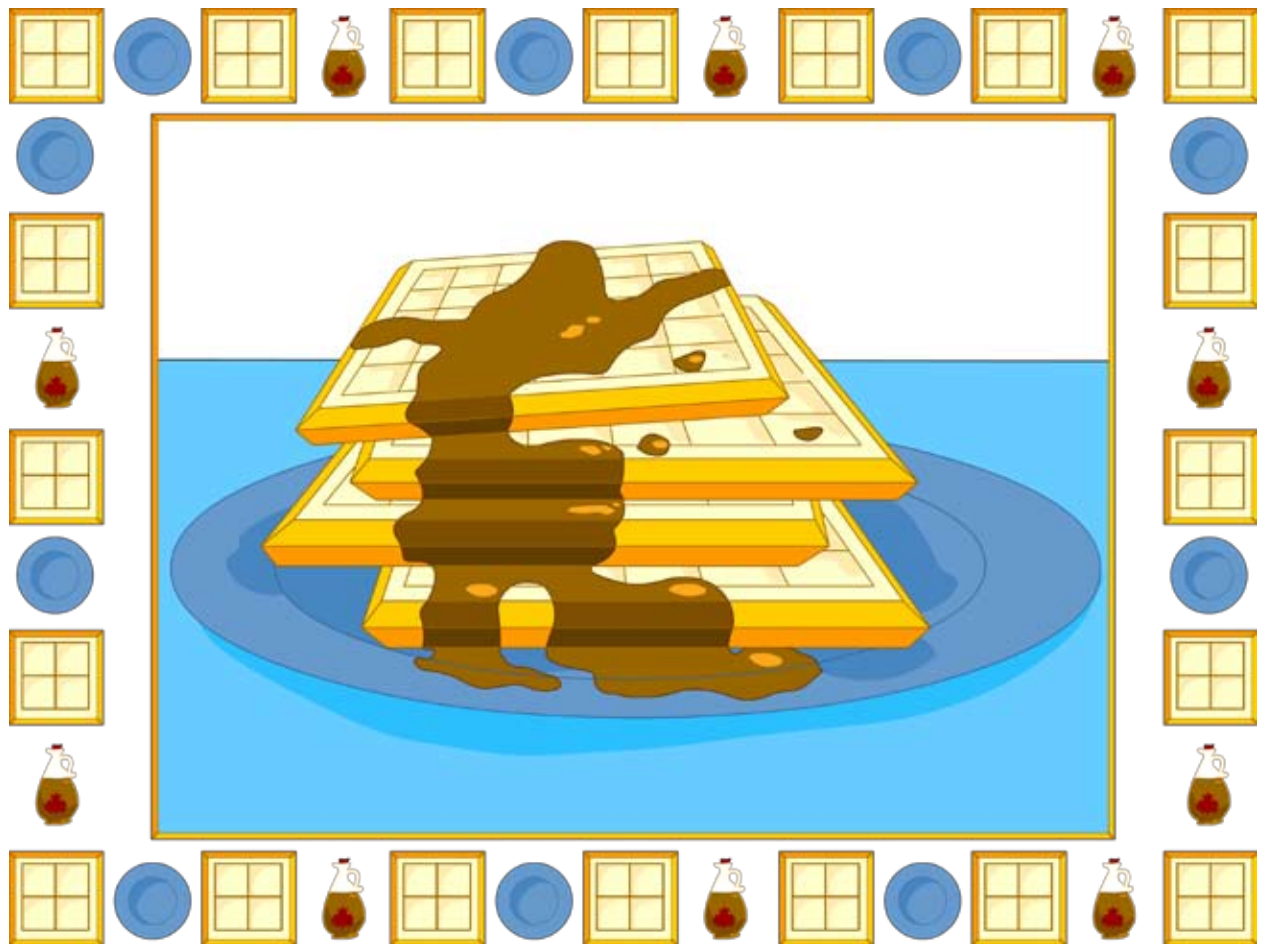

When I Open My Eyes

My mouth starts to water,
What will I taste?
I dress, and I run
To the kitchen with haste.

When I Open My Eyes

My eyes open wide,
The waffles look yummy.
I can't wait to put them
All in my tummy.

When I Open My Eyes

The taste is so good,
The syrup so thick.
It drips down my chin,
And my tongue gives a lick.

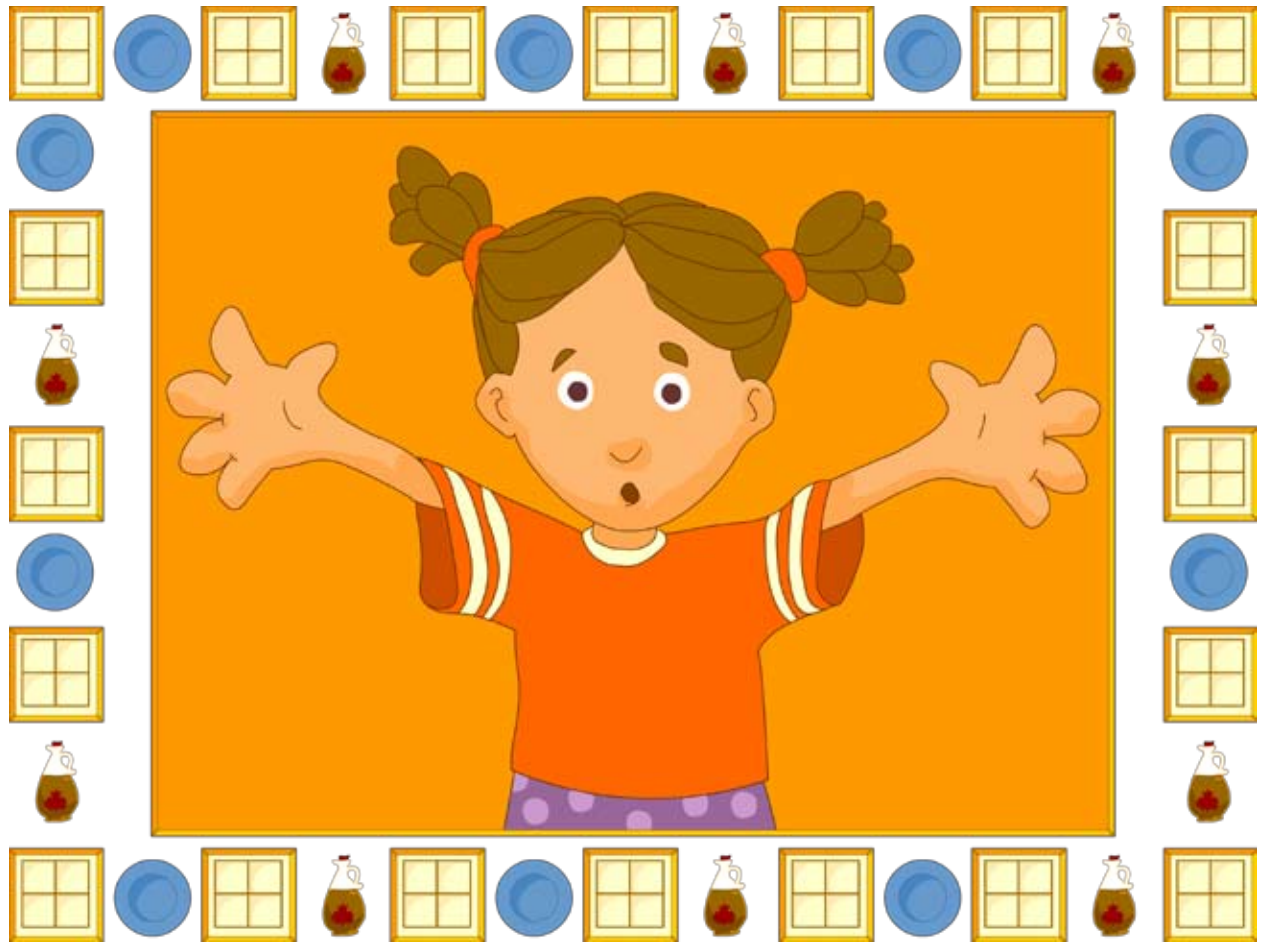

When I Open My Eyes

I yell, "Thanks" to my dad.
I've got to run.
My friends are all waiting,
And I'm off for some fun."

"Just wait a minute."
"Just hold it right there."
Two yellow eyes
Are still in a stare.

When I Open My Eyes

A last minute hug,
My friend she does try.
I give her a squeeze,
And I wink my left eye.

When I Open My Eyes

I'm off for the day.
It started just great.
I'm all out of time,
And I'm going to be late.
